and your thoughts.

But the automatic nerves that, unguided and unknown, night and day, keep your heart in motion—control the digestive apparatus—regulate your liver—operate your kidneys.

These are the nerves that worry wears out and work breaks down.

It does no good to treat the ailing organ—the irregular heart—the disordered liver—the shellious stomach—the deranged kidneys, they are not to blame. But go back to the ierves that control them? There you will not the seat of the trouble.

It does no good to take stimulants and arcotics, for theirs, at best, is but a temorary effect which are best, is but a temorary effect which merely postpones the nat day of reckning.
